For additional information regarding SIPC coverage, including a brochure, please contact SIPC at (202) 371-8300 or visit www.sipc.org.

Any free credit balance represents funds payable upon demand which, although properly accounted for on our books of records, is not segregated, and may be used in the conduct of this firm's business as permissible under the SEC Rule 15c3-2.

Alpaca is a member of the Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. ("FINRA") and we are required to inform you of the availability of the FINRA Investor Brochure, which contains information on FINRA BrokerCheck. You may contact FINRA at 800-289-9999 or through their website at www.finra.org.

Any suspected inaccuracy or discrepancy in your account statement must be promptly reported to Alpaca. In order to protect your rights, including your right to SIPC coverage, please confirm any oral communication in writing and include your brokerage account number. Account positions and balance inquiries or concerns should be directed to Alpaca via email at support@alpaca.markets.

The SEC requires all broker-dealers that route orders in equity securities and options to make available quarterly reports that present a general overview of their routing practices. The reports must identify the executing venues to which customer orders were routed for execution during the applicable quarter and disclose the material aspects of the broker-dealer's relationship with such venues. In addition, the Rule (SEC 606) requires broker-dealers to disclose, on customer request, the venues to which the individual customer's orders were routed for the six months prior to the request, and the execution time for the orders that were executed. For further information, please contact your broker.

Alpaca Securities LLC is subject to the Uniform Net Capital Rule (15c3-1) of the Securities and Exchange Commission and is required to maintain a minimum amount of net capital. The U.S. Department of the Treasury and the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) have introduced regulations under Internal Revenue Code, Section 1446(f) regarding publicly traded partnership (PTP) securities held by foreign persons (individuals or entities). The regulation requires withholding 10% of gross proceeds from sales of PTP securities and certain distributions by PTPs. The transactions and related withholding tax will be reported on Form 1042-S, Foreign Person's U.S. Source Income Subject to Withholding. PTP withholding tax is separate from the existing 37% withholding for individuals and 30% withholding for entity accounts on payments of U.S. source dividends, interest, and other income related to PTP securities. For more information go to Publicly Traded Partnerships | Internal Revenue Service - Alpaca is not responsible for knowing your tax liabilities, as such you should consult with a tax advisor for any questions around these regulations.
